

Testimonial for Fullsun Marketing Pte Ltd

Dear Mr Gan,

I take this opportunity to compliment you and your team for the professional services provided by Fullsun Marketing as the supplier of sanitary wares for Yishun Community Hospital.

You and your team demonstrated exemplary professional initiative in clearly explaining and advising our younger architects on the considerations for selecting sanitary wares for the project, and in this respect how TOTO products could add value to the project.

The team's insights into the selection of sanitary wares for hospital application proved invaluable for our young architects in selecting the appropriate specification. They were very prompt in responding to any queries that our architects made. We were impressed with the detailed information provided by your team relating to grab-bars with different measurements for special ward toilets, and also custom-made sinks. Such assistance from your team was very beneficial to us in reducing our workload.

We appreciate the extra effort from your team in answering our queries are very satisfied with the service rendered by your team on the project. We look forward to more collaboration with them.

Yours Sincerely,

THEODORE E.C. CHAN
